Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the paper side" in line 3. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim 1 recites the limitation "the paper side" in line 9. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Bamburg et al. (3,910,482).

Bamburg discloses a method for making a box comprising the steps of a) corrugating a first flute medium (Fig. 3; via any one of the plurality of corrugating web), b) adhering the first flute medium to the paper side of a first lamination of paper and a barrier layer (Figs. 1 and 4 & abstract; lines 5-7), c) corrugating a second flute medium (Fig. 3; via any one of the plurality of corrugating web), d) adhering the second flute medium to one side of a sandwich of a barrier layer bonded between two paper liners (via some webs are in the middle being sandwiched between two paper liners), and e) adhering the first flute medium to the other side of the sandwich (Fig. 3; inherent they are adhered to each other), while adhering the second flute medium to the paper side of a second lamination of paper and barrier layer (Figs. 1 and 4; abstract lines 5-7).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 2-4 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Bamburg et al. (3,910,482).

Bamburg does not disclose that the adhering is a water resistant starch. However, the examiner takes an official notice that water resistant starch adhesive is old, well known, and available in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have substituting Bamburg's glue by water resistant starch glue in order to strongly glue the box layers and avoid any water damage to the layers.

Regarding claims 3 and 4: Bamburg does not disclose that the layer is a plastic/polyester film. However, the examiner takes an official notice that plastic/polyester film layers are old, well known, and available in the art. Therefore, it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have substituting Bamburg's film layers by using plastic/polyester film layers as it is known in the milk and juice containers in order to make the container able to carry liquid within it.
